Dear Music Lovers,

We would like to invite you to renew your Dallas Symphony Orchestra Guild membership for the 2023-2024 season. Most of our luncheons will be held at various venues and clubs in the Dallas area. Our evening programs will include a professionally catered dinner, typically in a beautiful home in the Dallas area. We have invited distinguished guest musicians, conductors, as well as distinguished members of the DSO leadership to share their musical talent and vision with us.

Join us as a member this year for up to 10 intimate and interesting programs. We will again have five Friday luncheons and five Wednesday evening dinner programs for you to choose from during the DSO season. Packages of 3, 5, 10 and 14 programs are available. We are so excited about the array of exciting guests from the world of symphonic music who will participate in our Guild programs. Our current plans include renowned guests such as: Eric Owens, opera singer, Marie Jacquot, conductor, Alexi Kenney, violinist, Xi Wang, pianist, conductor and composer, Maurice Cohen, DSO Associate Conductor and other musicians and conductors who are scheduled for the 2023-2024 DSO season.
